

Merger and Acquisition (M&A) Services

Is your business ready for sale? The sooner you start a conversation with us, the better off you will be.

After many years of hard work and most likely plenty of sacrifices, the decision to exit or sell your business can be both emotional and stressful. However, as this represents a one off opportunity to reap the rewards of a lifetime of effort, you need to ensure you have the right team behind you.

To get the optimum price, you need the right planning and process in place to ensure you stand out from the crowd and maximise your business's value.

It takes time and effort, but Crowe Jamaica Merger and Acquisition (M&A) service will ensure you understand what your business is worth, and the work you need to do prior to selling.

Our team will work with you to formulate the parameters of the sale, identify potential investors and assess the quality of the financial information including strategic plans, cash flow analysis and working capital requirements.

We also want to understand what you want out of this once in a lifetime decision. Your wish list such as the wellbeing of staff, simplicity of due diligence, and minimising disruption to your business will be factored into our M&A process.

We use a proven process to take it to market, where we go beyond the spreadsheets and undertake a realistic appraisal of the business and the difference it makes can be extraordinary.

We've helped buy and sell businesses over the years so we know exactly where to look and what to do.

The sooner you start a conversation with us, the better off you will be.
